Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of 75 per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10cts. Try it. nov291

Mexican Car Conductors.

There are a few short open cars in Mexico, but the great majority are close cars, with the windows down, except in cold or rainy weather. Everybody smokes as much as he pleases on any car, from conductor to driver. Smoking is an universal habit that a prohibition of smoking would make the people rise in revolt; they would regard it as an infringement of their dearest privileges.

Sometimes, I regret to say, the conductor has a novel and reads slyly, to the neglect of noticing passengers halting his car from the sidewalk. The conductors do not take up tickets, but these are gathered by inspectors, who board the cars at regular stations and, after collection, make a comparison of books with the conductor. This system is said to work very well. [Mexican Letter. Sold by

TUESDAY..... JUNE 7, 1887

Hon. Frederick Douglass has just returned to London, having traveled nine months on the continent and in Egypt. His is a remarkable life. Forty-one years ago Ellen and Anus Richardson, of Newcastle-on-the-Tyne, paid $750 for his freedom before and while the late war raged the eloquence of Douglass in behalf of his race was marvelously effective. While holding the position of Recorder of Deeds at Washington a few years ago his marriage with a white woman caused a sensation in social circles that attracted the attention of the public press throughout the United States. He is now the recognized leader of his race; he is a writer, an orator and a statesman. The conclusions which he arrives at from his late ethnological studies in Egypt will attract universal attention. The fact that he found there a people inferior to those of similar ancestry enslaved in the South is not at all startling. As much to be deplored as is slavery, as averse as it is to every instinct of modern civilization, as heinous as it is in the eyes of Him who is no respecter of persons still, though in slavery, the negro race of America has made great progress. Comingling in the South with the purest and best blood of the Anglo-Saxon race, imbuing their spirit, breathing their social atmosphere and eating of the fruits of their civilization there has been, as Douglass admits, such an advancement of the American negro that there can scarcely be constituted a comparison between him and the modern Egyptian. This advancement in the condition of millions of people is the compensation for the national disgrace of slavery introduced in 1513 in our oft-vaunted "land of the free and the home of the brave." This comingling in this country of the negro with the Anglo-Saxon is doing for the former what was done for the Britains by the invasion, respectively of the Romans, the Teutons and the Normans. Now that the negro is free and to some extent must rely upon self for subsistence and an education, his advancement in all that pertains to the best civilization known to modern times should in the future be still more rapid than in the past.

Superintendent W. I. Davis, of the Grand Junction School, with several Indian pupils, will leave here to-morrow morning for home. He expected to take with him at least forty recruits for his excellent school. He would have done so had not Piute Natchez, and his lovely relative the far-famed Princess Sarah Winnemucca, interposed a veto. This latter idolized friend of Mrs. Horace Mann and Miss Peabody can shed crocodile tears over the misfortunes and lamentable ignorance of "my people," but now that the opportunity offers this "patron of learning" shows her hand. She is soon to go East to collect money to educate "my people," but she protests against the Government educating them. She dislikes the Government and the dislike is mutual. Her dislike to the Government is her objection to "my people" being educated at the Government's expense. If Sarah could handle the Government's money as she does that of the misguided religious enthusiast there would never be a whisper by her against the Government educating the Plute people to which, unfortunately for them, she is a member.

Chicago Election Carried by the Citizens' Ticket.

CHICAGO, June 7.

The result of the election in Cook county to-day for six members of the Circuit Bench was a decided victory for the Citizens' ticket, except in the Sixth Ward. The vote averaged three to one against the ticket put up by the machine political committee and endorsed by the Socialists and Anarchists. The three Republican candidates originally named by the political committees were endorsed by the Citizens' ticket, as there were no charges of bribery or fraud against them. The three Democratic nominees, however, —Crafts, Kraus and English—were rejected, as it was openly asserted that the Democratic Committee had hawked the nominations about the streets at a price of $5,000.

Cardinal Gibbons' Reception in Baltimore.

PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE:

Honors to a Cardinal.

BALTIMORE, June 6.

When Cardinal Gibbons arrived here the streets leading to the depot were thronged with people. Mayor Hodges, the members of the City Council, judges of the courts and the Police Commissioner received the Cardinal on the part of the Irish societies. The Cardinal was received by Charles A. Bonaparte and the trustees of the Cathedral and a committee of clergy. The Cardinal was escorted to the Cathedral by a procession formed to do honor to his high office. When the head of the column reached the Cardinal's palace there was a halt and the Cardinal with the clergy and Guard of Honor entered the building. There the Cardinal was invested with his official robes, and returning to the street the procession moved to the main entrance of the Cathedral where there was a formal reception by Mons. McGolgan, and service for the Cardinal's reception was performed for the first time in Baltimore. At the close of the religious service the Cardinal returned to the palace and viewed the procession.

Protection for Our Seal Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

A telegram was received at the Treasury Department to-day announcing that the revenue steamer Richard Rush sailed from San Francisco to-day for a cruise to Ounalaska and the seal islands, for the protection of the seal fisheries. It is stated at the Department that the instructions to Captain Shepard, her commander, were substantially the same as those previously sent to Captain Healy, commanding the steamer Bear, which is now cruising in Alaskan waters. The orders to Captain Healy made no reference whatever to the treatment of foreign vessels found fishing in the vicinity of the seal islands. An officer of the Department said to-day that the course to be pursued in the cases of the alleged foreign invasion of our fishery rights will depend almost entirely upon the circumstances surrounding each case, and action will be left to the commanding officers of the revenue cutters.

The Body of the Ex-Vice-President to Lie in State.

MALONE, N. Y., June 7.

The body of Mr. Wheeler will lie in state in the vestibule of the Congregational church to-day from 10:30 A. M. till 12:15 P. M. All business will be suspended in Malone. A guard of honor from the 27th regiment will attend the body while at the church. Governor Hill has sent a telegram of sympathy and regrets his inability to be present at the funeral.

The Boot and Shoe Workers Convention.

BOSTON, June 7.

Several hundred delegates to the great boot and shoe workers convention in Brockton arrived here yesterday. They come from all parts of the country. The feeling is general that a national organization is necessary and that the entire control of their affairs should be in their own hands, independent of the Knights of Labor.

The Green-Eyed Monster Again at Work.

CINCINNATI, June 6.

A special from Mayaville, Ky., says John H. Fields, farmer living near Helena, shot his wife and two sons about 2 A. M. Sunday, and then cut his throat. At last accounts all were still living. Jealousy and financial embarrassment is assigned as the cause for the crime.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Cheering the Grand Old Man.

CARDIFF, June 7.

Gladstone arrived here this morning from Swansea. A large crowd had gathered at the station and upon his arrival he was given an enthusiastic reception. As the train left the station on its way to London Gladstone was saluted with loud and prolonged cheering by the assemblage.

A Story Denied.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 7.

It is asserted that the recent story that 14 Bokhara officials at Kerki were murdered by Afghans because they refused to incite the inhabitants to resist the Russian advance, was a pure invention, being simply a pretext for the occupation of Kerki.

A Case of Fresh Out.

CALCUTTA, June 7.

The troops of the Amir of Afghanistan and Ghilzai, who are in revolt against the Amir's authority, retain the same positions they have occupied for some time past, and are apparently trying to starve each other out.

Resisting Evictions in Ireland.

DUBLIN, June 7.

The evictions at Bodyske continued to-day. Tenant McNamara, who was behind in his rent, defended his house, but the bailiff broke a hole in the wall. Logs and boiling water were thrown through the hole at the evicting forces. An entrance was made through the opening and a fight ensued. The tenants were evicted and afterwards arrested. The bailiffs charged the tenants with having thrown vitriol upon them, but this is denied. A tenant named Murphy made a similar resistance against eviction.

A Sensible Decision.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 7.

The arguments in the case of the American fishing schooner David J. Adams, seized by the Canadian authorities for buying bait in the territory of the Dominion, were concluded in the Admiralty Court to-day. The Court said that the Americans were entitled to buy bait the same as to repair damages, or that she could procure the same as she could water.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

Looking for the Second Coming.

SALT LAKE, June 7.

A Chicago man named Marr to-day visited the unfinished Mormon temple, accompanied by his wife and a lady friend. They had to cross a large deep open space on a platform of loose boards. Glancing downward Marr saw a crouching saint in the pit looking up—for the second coming of Christ probably. This incensed Marr, who cornered the beast and gave him a flogging. The Paul Pry saint threatened to call his brethren, whereupon the Chicagoan told him to call the whole band and to spur him up, punched him again.

Apaches on the Warpath.

NOGALES, June 6.

A dispatch received here to-day states that seventeen Apache Indians have left the reservation and taken to the warpath. Why they left is unknown, but they seem to mean business. Last night they were near Calabasas, nine miles north of this place. They have created no depredations, and the supposition is that they are making for the Sierra Madre Mountains in Sonora.

Disease and Death.

Force their way into many a household that might be protected from their intrusions, by the simple practice of keeping in the house that benign family medicine and safeguard of health, Ho-Ho-Tin's Skin Bitters. Particularly where there are children, should it be kept on hand, as a prompt remedy for infantile complaints, in their outset easily conquerable, but which, if allowed to engrave themselves on the delicate children, originate and easily disseminate, and speedily work grievous mischief. Irregularity of the bowels, indigestion and biliousness, are ailments of common occurrence in the household. Children, living in malarious regions, are more liable to be attacked with chills and fever than adults, and are subject to disease in their systems, are species and more serious. In remote localities, far from professional aid, it is especially desirable.

Eureka.

The motto of California means, "I have found it." Only in that land of sunshine where the orange, lemon, olive, fig and grape bloom and ripen, and attain their highest perfection in mid-winter, are the herbs and gum found, that are used in that pleasant remedy for all throat and lung diseases.

WANTS PROOF.

The Water in the Truckee Policed by Sawdust.

The Truckee Republican says: "It is very easy for the GAZETTE to make assertions, but it is an entirely different thing to substantiate those statements with proof. That sawdust will breed maggots is something new to science, and if the GAZETTE can prove that it is not lying a high place among the scientists of the world is ready for occupancy by the editor. If the water is so impure, we suggest that an analysis be made of that which is in the river, and the amount of the impurity ascertained; also the character of the impurity should be known whether it is caused by sawdust or other substances. It is time something was done in that direction if it is desired to remedy the alleged injury. There must be something beyond mere assertion before the mill men will notice it. If you have any proof, produce it; or forever after keep still."

It is also very easy to dispute assertions, but to do so conclusively is another thing. The sawdust we complain of, whether it carries the germ that produces the maggot or secretes the filth that does so, is something we are not prepared to answer, and is also a question the scientific editor of the Republican is equally unprepared to determine. Circumstances have much to do with arriving at a satisfactory solution of some questions. If the Republican was edited here it would be the sawdust that produced the maggot and nothing else. He would be radically certain of this fact, all the scientists on earth to the contrary. The analysis of the river water will determine the impurities that exist in it, and this interesting process has been performed in a manner fully satisfactory to those who use it. The analysis did not demonstrate that the sawdust was an innocent traveler down the stream. It did not show that fermenting and rotten sawdust was a benefit to the water. It did demonstrate, however, that the water was in a horrible state and totally unfit for use, either as a beverage or for house purposes.

The Republican says the impurities in the water should be characterized, and stated whether caused by sawdust or other matter. This would indicate that other filth was working in conjunction with the sawdust to aid it in its deadly summer work. We heartily concur in the assertion that "it is time something was done if it is desired to remedy the alleged injury." Not the "alleged injury," as the Republican is pleased to term it, but the indisputable injury. It must be done before a score or more of Reno's little children are laid at rest in our homes for the dead. This will be the penalty of delay just so sure as day follows night. We are not contending for mere indulgence, but for the welfare and health of the community in which we live. We also admit that "there must be something done beyond mere assertion." It is a case of "convince a man against his will, and he is of the same opinion still." It is useless to indulge longer in a simple representation of facts. Argument and appeals are of no avail. They have been heard time and time again. Now it is time to act.

The writer of the above clipping says, "if you have any proof, produce it." We will have proof before the Summer ends. Horrible proof; proof that will forever "silence" the deadly water it drank.

After the ceremony refreshments were served, to all of which ample justice was done. Mr. and Mrs. Larcombe took the train for San Francisco, where they will remain about a week. Many of their young friends were at the depot to bid them goodbye and offer congratulations.

PEAVINE MINING DISTRICT.

Still Mining There—Bullion Producing—Prospects of the Camp.

Yesterday afternoon, in company with George Beaham, of Ohio, a GAZETTE reporter visited Peavine Mining District. There are now in the District four families, those of Griffin, Hogan, Merrill and Hunt, in all about twelve persons. There are in the camp about 20 houses, many of which are patronized exclusively by bats, owls, horned toads and lizards. Peavine once had hundreds of people, hopeful of a future; had hoisting works, a ten-stamp mill with leaching and other facilities, for reducing ores, that cost over $100,000. Then it attracted the attention of mining circles not only in Nevada, but in California. Like Meadow Lake, however, and from the same cause, the glory of Peavine has departed. But as did Bodie and Paradise Valley, so Captain Griffin thinks.

PEAVINE WILL REVIVE.

The Captain shows his faith by his works, for already he has given twelve years of his life in mining explorations there, and now has employed four miners in the well-known Paymaster mine, of which he is the owner. The $18,000 taken out of the mine in 1872 and '73 is proof positive of the mineral deposit there at that time, and the ore that recently reduced at the reduction works here, yielded $88 per ton in evidence that the

ORE DEPOSIT IS NOT EXHAUSTED.

Captain Griffin is working in a tunnel 450 feet long and within 30 feet of where he will make connections that will give the mine plenty of ventilation. Two men at work in the breast of the tunnel in very promising ground are making three feet a day. Since the reduction works here have been in operation Peavine has again attracted the attention of mining men. What once were regarded as base and rebellious ores are now sold for cash on delivery to John Howell as wheat is sold to H. H. Beck or S. G. Fogus. Among the prominent mining men who are expected soon to inspect these Peavine mines is Senator J. P. Jones. It is also rumored that the incorporated company owning the adjoining claim known as the Hopkins will soon resume operations. Among the prominent stockholders in that claim are General C. C. Powning and Senator William Thompson. If Peavine should develop into a big mining camp, as it may even in the near future, Reno would indeed have a boom, and such a one as never before in the history of the riverside town.

Coming Out Again.

Many of the old properties worked along the Comstock in early days will be in operation again, and the bullion output of the old lode increased proportionately. In nearly all the mines low grade ore bodies were encountered that, it is now thought, can be made to pay under the new and economical method of reducing ores.

The mines on American Flat are now attracting the attention of Comstock operators, and from present appearances the lively times of the past will be re-enacted there again. The old Knickerbocker mine has recently been incorporated in San Francisco, and work will soon be commenced in the property with W. E. Sharon, of the jacket, as Superintendent. Silver City is now a lively mining camp, and it will not be long until all the old works from Silver on the south to the Utah mine on the north will be sending out smoke and ore.

Not Very Startling.

The GAZETTE has discovered that sawdust breeds maggots, edgings become snakes and slabs hideous turtles.—Republican.

We do not see anything very startling about the discovery. Any sewer is enough to generate such reptiles as above named, and rotten sawdust has transformed the Truckee river into a stream of running filth.

OUR "GLORIOUS CLIMATE."

Opinion of an Eastern Visitor.

Mr. Geo. Beaham, an attorney of Norwalk, Ohio, who has recently made a trip from New York to San Francisco via Panama, Central America and Mexico, and spent some time in Southern California, is stopping in the city for a few days. Being interviewed by a GAZETTE reporter regarding his impressions of the Pacific slope, he replied: "I was much pleased with the climate of California; it is a delightful retreat from cold weather; but I think the coast climate is lacking in the bracing elements of your Nevada mountain air. I can't say that I found much in Southern California excepting climate and scenery. However, of course, they have brought down the water from the mountains and made the desert blossom, but the blossom has been very expensive. At $500 and $1,000 per acre, even their 'glorious climate'
